

2023-2024 SCHOOL-FAMILY COMPACT

In accordance with the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), the School-Family Compact outlines agreed-upon responsibilities of Philadelphia Hebrew Public Charter School team, and families, participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A (a federal grant), that will help children achieve academic success.

Philadelphia Hebrew Public values each parent and family member as an integral partner for students to reach and exceed the Pennsylvania State Department of Education's high academic standards. Collaboratively, families and school staff build, maintain, and work within a vital partnership to provide an exceptional student learning experience.

School's Responsibilities

Philadelphia Hebrew Public Charter School will:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment.
  - The curriculum is reviewed and revised for alignment on an ongoing basis.
  - Instruction is based on best practices to meet the needs of all learners.
  - Teacher training and professional development opportunities are provided for and offered to instructional staff including a robust Induction Program for new teachers and teachers who are new to the school.
- Provide opportunities for ongoing communication between families and teachers.
  - Reasonable access to staff through phone calls, virtual meetings, office hours and ParentSquare communications.
  - Family conferences are held at the end of each marking period and on-demand, as needs arise.
  - Written communication, including ParentSquare messages and announcements, newsletters, email, texts.
  - Frequent reporting of student academic progress, homework feedback, report cards.
- Provide assistance in understanding academic achievement standards, assessments, and how to monitor your child's progress.
  - Family informational and planning meetings, Back to School Night, open house.
  - Family training sessions and posted parent resources
- Provide activities that interest and engage students to be more involved in the learning community.

Family's Responsibilities

We, as families, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Provide a safe and secure home and learning environment.
- Partner with the school to ensure your student has the resources needed to attend school on time each day and participate actively in classes.
- Regularly review your child's schoolwork. Check to make sure assignments are completed and submitted on time in all courses.
- Attend family conferences and participate in family informational meetings.
